Smiles Through Mist as Miss H Jen Huntington Becomes His Bride.

FEW SEE CEREMONY; BRIDEGROOM ILL

staatsburg Home Gay with Guests and Blossoms Within and Happy village Folk Without.

Dinsmore Huntington was Too ill to take his bride on the longhoneymoon voyage to ed with her to Ferneliff, his . my months before they go abroad. So weak was Mr. Astor early in the day that he surprised everybody present by emaining through the long wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, the de's parents. The only presents described were two-a necklace of graduated pearls, given by Mr. Astor to his bride, and a large rose-shaped jewel, bright with numerous diamonds, a great diand in the centre, given to young Mrs. Aster by Mrs. John Aster, mother of Vinfrom the bride's cake. Superstition makes it imperative that she be the first of all the unmarried women present to-day to become a bride.

Sun Shines Benediction.

The sun has a conscience. At the preat the precise moment-that the fargaret's Episcopal Church, united Mr. hed through the mist and balted the pleasant drizzle that had been falling continued bright and clear.

ming. He was placed in a wheel chair Huntingtons call the "long room." There guests began to assemble about A special car that had been coupled e train leaving the Grand Central o'clock. Under normal condierstand would attend, and Sheriff Fred buted his own and the services of fifty

The merry villagers, as is the wont of ery villagers, gathered at the gateway, man the years had brought toof the merry villagers could | the bride, and Olin Davis. wing man and the young woman to- Gilbert, rendered the music folk that the grass and the trees had ak's "Humoresque." in that happy section of Stantsburg.

many buxom hills of the estate, looked greenhouses.

guests were gathered in the library.

for which had been made. To some exwere orange blossoms. Her bouguet been of the servants of both houses allow Mrs. Huntington's gown was of the taffeta and chiffon. The bride's alslet Allee was maid of honor. Miss Astor and Miss Many for which had been made. To some extent they were solated by the gift to tent they were solated by the president, Mrs. Belle de Rivera, attended the performance of "Panthea." at the Booth

Theatre, yesterday afternoon.

The are, yesterday afternoon.

The are, were orange blossoms. Her bouguet tent they were solated by the gift to one hundred members of the New York Theatre Club, headed by the president, Mrs. Belle de Rivera, attended the performance of "Panthea." at the Booth
Theatre, yesterday afternoon.

The are, yesterday afternoon.

The are were orange blossoms. Her bouguet tent they were solated by the gift to
one hundred members of the New York Theatre Club, headed by the president, Mrs. Belle de Rivera, attended the performance of "Panthea." at the Booth
The are well reside at Rye, N. Y.

The are, yesterday afternoon.

Frank Keenan, in "Vindication," will

Frank Keenan, in "Vindication," will

The are the server orange blossoms her bouguet tent they were solated the performance of "Panthea." at the Booth they will reside at Rye, N. Y.

The are the server orange blossoms here or the bridegroom.

The are the server orange blossoms here orang and Miss Margaret Dows, flower girls,

The guests not previously mentioned can, Miss Kay, J. Roosevelt-Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Dows, the Misses Suckley, Mrs. Monsell Crosby, the Rev. 181 Hanch, Madison Square Garden, 1 Misses Masters, Mrs. William B. Dinamore, Mr and Mrs. William B. Dinamore, Mr and their children, Clare and William B. Dinamore, Mrs. William B. Dinamore, Mrs. William B. Dinamore, Mrs. William B. Dinamore, Mrs. Mrs. William B. William B. Dinamore, Mrs. William B. William B. Dinamore, Mrs. William B. William B. William B. William B. Willia and their children, Clare and William

B. M.: Miss Madelaine Dinsmore, Miss Anna Rogers and Griswold Webb, who

Is his married on May 16, Mr. and Mrs.

Nother as Roders and delawold with an and Mrs.

Nother as Roders and Griswold Webb, who Thermon Wilson, Cliver S. Campbell, Mr.

Charles Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 229 p. 16.

Appn, 229 p. 16.

And Mrs. Wallace Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

And Mrs. Wallace Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

And Mrs. Wallace Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

And Mrs. Wallace Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

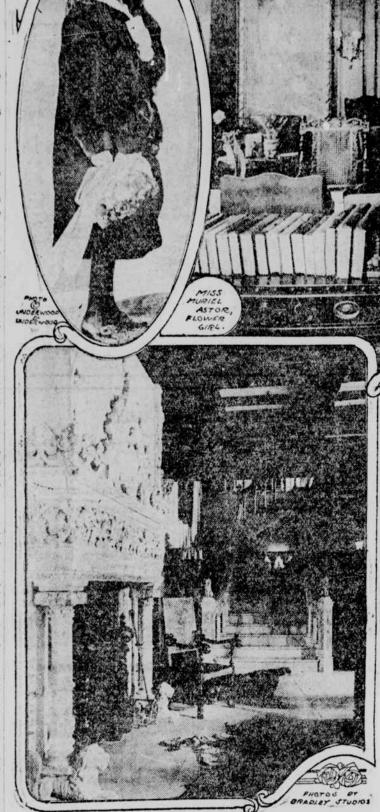

And Mrs. Wallace Goodrich, Arthur P.

Alpin, 220 p. 16.

Alpin, 220 p. 20.

Alpin,

HOPELAND HOUSE, SCENE OF ASTOR-HUNTINGTON WEDDING.

Hoppin, Miss Elizabeth Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rogers, R. P. Perkins, Edmund Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett, Mr. Stewart, Mrs. Hoskins, Ford Huntington, of the richest young man and the Mrs. Waldo Adams, Mrs. Edward C Adams, "Bobble" Huntington, brother of ther at times when all save they—the gramme was: Mendelssohn's "Spring they villagers—had not the faintest no- Song," Lohengrin's "Wedding March," ise that their romance would lead to the solo from Cavatino, "Les Millon d'Har- this time was a surprise to society. arently, for it was observed seriously by from "Madame Butterfly" and "La though ill, was able to escort his daughter broidered net, with sashes of pink satin. Mind the new or two but several of the towns- Bohème," the "Swan Song," and Dvor- to the altar.

Wedding Music.

The bridered net, with sashes of pink satin. Mind the new of database of "O. Perfect Love" taken on a greenness not hitherto known was rendered during the marriage cere- the marriage, and the bride was accomwas rendered during the marriage varieties not inthered a rendered during the marriage varieties of that happy section of Staatsburg.

The Tudor house, set on one of the roses and plants from Mrs. Dinsmore's as maid of honor. Accompanying Mr. Wells Newell, D. Van Ness Person and Firsts. Not much time passed before the While this could not be permitted, it was Mrs. Ransdell made her debut in Wash- Quackenbush, 1287 Madison ave., was while this could not be perinted, was suggested in the library.

Ington two seasons ago and at once because of the perinted of the perin gulls, forsythia, smilax, white roses, white a West Highland terrier, an Airednie, a will spend the summer at Manassas, Va. a grandson of Richard Olney, formerly erchids and camelias. Wonderful clus- setter and three pointers-were decorated ers of daisies rose from the flower stuffed with white satin ribbons, leashed and sefreplace almost to the ceiling. Over the in the hall. They appeared to be satismantel, of marble, brought from Rome by fied until the ceremony was over, when, the Huntingtons five years ago, was Leu's felting of a Tyrolean scene. Cushions of pink satin lay before the prie-dieu and the five years ago, was Leu's extravagant series of congratulations of the state of the prie-dieu and the corresponding to the five years curate of the humanly, they broke into the most received to-day by the Rev. Edwin H. Which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was given away by her back of that great wreaths of ramblers. good acoustic properties.

The Beidel Party.

To all of the numerous employes of the

When they got to the station platform to the library, where Mr. Astor and Mr. Oeirichs joined them as they promptly took charge. There was no opposition on the part of the guests to this men, and in less than ten minutes all in the room were seated at the eight menkingst tables. Love Starry had been the station platform. The twenty-sixth annual production of the University of Pennsylvania, will be seen at position on the part of the guests to this position on the part of the guests to this position on the part of the guests to this position on the part of the guests to this evening, afterwards, Mrs. John Astor and Alice Muriel Astor play for this year is "The Royal Arms," returned to New York with the others book by Darrell H. Smith and lyrics by the Charles Gilpin.

Mrs. William B. Dinsmore. In her cors. for which had been made. To some ex-the Huntingtons for more than twenty years. William Herrick, supermitendent take Arnold Daly's place on the bill at were dressed in corn colored chiffon and of the Dinsmore estate, has been emounted by Mrs. William B. Dinsmore for Keensn will also present his sket ployed by Mrs. William B. Dinsmore for Keensn will also present his eketch at fifty-five years.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

MISS RIVERO A BRIDE

Married to T. N. Ransdell.

Mendelssohn's "Spring to Thomas Nelson Ransdell, of Manassas. lequin," by Drigo; "Meditation," from though announcement of the engagement the bridal party passed to the temporary "Thais"; "Poupée Valsante," selections was made some time ago. The minister, altar. The brides maids were in white em-the dorway Mr. and Mrs. Huntington the dorway Mr. and Mrs. Huntington to the veranda to welcome the agent of the proceedings.

The capers of the six dogs of the Huntington in the morning were evidence enough that the animals were anxious to the veranda to welcome the attend and be a part of the proceedings.

The capers of the six dogs of the Huntington in the morning were evidence mony were, besides the bride's family, and will live in Upper Montelair.

E. S. Ransdell and the Misses Ransdell, Miss Isabel Shirley Quackenbush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham C.

Van Etten, for three years curate of which was followed by a reception at the Orpheum.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The management of the Palace Theatre announces as additional acts for next week Sascha Platov and Kitty soprano," and J. Bernard Dyllyn, bary-John J. Chapman, William A. Dobbyn, the Misses Masters, Mrs. William E. Dina184 Eldridge st.

Note: City Federation

Soprano, End S. Bernard Dyllyn, 1847 tone, have been engaged for the "Ziegfield Follies." at Mae Murray's Folies Marigny, which

Judge Ashbel Green, of New York, was MISS KERR WEDS married to James Renville McMann by the Rev. Dr. Davis in the Presbyterian Church here this evening. The bride was WALTER BETTINSON given away by her father. The bridesmalds were Miss Helen Green

Ceremony Performed at Home of Bride's Brother, in Central Park West.

SMALL RECEPTION TO FRIENDS FOLLOWS

Miss Isabel Quackenbush and Francis Minot Married in South Church.

Kerr, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kerr, to Walter Charles Bettinson, of Upper Montelair, N. J., took place yesterday afternoon at the home of her brother, John Clapperton Kerr, 135 Central Park West. The house was decorated with cherry and apple blossoms. Rev. Dr. Henry Swinten, of St. Luke's Church, Brooklyn, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a small re-brother, wore a gown of white satin with court train, trimmed with point lace, and a veil of Irish lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and gardenias. Miss Daughter of Cuban Diplomat Helen Culver Kerr, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in white embroidered chiffon over pink satin Ransdell was Thomas Clark, his cousin.

The capers of the six dogs of the Hunt
In the family party to witness the cereson will live in Upper Montain.

Secretary of State, yesterday afternoon Boston Rector Called Here. In South Church, Park ave, and Sith st. Boston, April 30.—A call to the rector-ship of Christ Church, New York, was

Mr. Astor, with Herman Celrichs, his gave either roses or white orchids. The Huntington, preceded by Miss Alice Huntington and Miss Alice Muriel Astor, the decoration.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The Children's Educational Theatre gave of white satin, trimmed with point face, and a veil of will give its "springtime fête," with deputy sheriffs came in for this honor, too, and they took on added dignity with the decoration.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The Children's Educational Theatre with give its "springtime fête," with deputy sheriffs came in for this honor, too, and they took on added dignity with the decoration.

The Children's Educational Theatre with give its "springtime fête," with deputy sheriffs came in for this honor, too, and they took on added dignity with the decoration. father. She were a gown of white satin. bet flower girls, stepped down the cream About 2 o'clock a number of the guests colored marble staircase into the lons living far from Staatsburg departed for the railroad station.

Time Curtain Rises To-day

To evening and saturday attendon and of the bride, was maid of honor, and About 2 o'clock a number of the guests exhibit and competitive dancing under the direction of Sailing Baruch. devices. They passed through the long When they got to the station platform The twenty-sixth annual production of with horse with ho pink taffeta, with hats of white straw, trimmed with pink and lavender sweet-

BRENEISER-DAY. [From The Tribune Bureau.

Washington, April 30.-The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Day, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David T. Day, and Stanley Breneiser, of Reading, Penn., took place at for next week Sascha Piatov and Kitty Glaser, dancers: the Stan-Stanley Trio and De Haven, Nice and De Haven, Herbert Clifton, the "Australian male soprano," and J. Bernard Dyllyn, barysoprano," and J. Bernard Dyllyn, barysoprano," and J. Bernard Dyllyn, barysoprano, "and J. Bernard Dyllyn, barysoprano," the members of the two families being the members of the two families being The Traffic.

Royal
The Rainbow. West End present. The bride was attended by Miss Catharyn V. Relley. Ellsworth Snow, of field Follies."

Two orchestras will furnish the music at Mae Murray's Folles Marigny, which opens to-morrow night. Several Hunopens to-morrow night. Several Hunopens to-morrow will play the waltz and Miss Carol Coc, of Englewood; Miss Farrel, of Ansonia, Conn., and Miss Anne Ruyzen. Carlisle, of South Bend, Ind. The heat Among man was Frank Wilson, of New York. The ushers were Frederick Reynolds,

PAY RESPECTS TO ASTOR

Sickes and Oswald Kirkby.

Send Congratulations. one from the women who attended the Gordon Doughs and Mrs. Lee Thomas. The marriage of Miss Grace Lothian quarters, 491 Hudson st. Many of them Mr. and Mrs. Norrie Sellar bave closed have been Mr. Astor's guests on the summer outlings which he has given to residents of Greenwich Village.

The telogram read:

The women of Greenwich Village, 9th Ward, who have enloyed the Vincent Astor excursions, send their congratulations to Mr. Astor on the occasion of his marriage. He has done much to make them happy and they wish him and hie bride all happiness in return.

It was signed by Mrs. Mary Nelson and Mrs. Katherine Norton.

The women of Greenwich Village, 9th Ward, who have enloyed the Vincent Astor excursions, send their congratulations to Mr. Astor on the occasion of his marriage. He has done much to make them happy and they wish him and his bride all happiness in return.

It was signed by Mrs. Mary Nelson and Mrs. Katherine Norton.

Mrs. William R. Coe, of Oyster Bay, has arrived in town and is at the Hotel Chiefly to entertainment, with the Brown University members of the society as hosts.

MME. NORDICA SINKING American Soprano's Physicians Give Up All Hope.

Batavia, Java, April 20.-Mme Lillian Nordica, who arrived here quite ill, nearly a month ago, has had a relapse, and is sinking. The doctors give up all hope of Rivero, daughter of the former Minister of Cuba to Washington, but now Cuban Minister to Haly, was married at 4 o'clock this afternoon of the former Minister and Minister to Haly, was married at 4 o'clock and Miss Louise Holydon.

this afternoon at the home of her parents

Spring to Thomas Nelson Ransdell, of Manassas, March," Va. The ceremony taking place just at different this time was a surprise to society. If the work is time was a surprise to society this time was a surprise to society. If though announcement of the engagement ections was made some time ago. The minister, in "Lae though ill, was able to excert his daughter. Dvortothe later. Dvortothe later. Dvortothe marriage, and the bride was accompanced by her sister, Miss Louise Hodsdon.

Miss Many Romasker, of Milwaukee, held ribbons forming an aisle through which the bridal party passed to the temporary alter. The bridesmaids were in white embedded in the bride party was best to the temporary alter. The bridesmaids were in white embeds her way to Thursday Island. Soveral days later the Tasman was pulled off, and made her way to Thursday Island with April 1.

Clarence Mann Sherwood, of Upper Montair, was best man, and the ushers of daises.

Clarence Mann Sherwood and Miss Louise Hodsdon.

Miss Winifred Marshall, of Brooklyn:

New York on a tour of the work of how York on a tour of the work of how York on a tour of the work of hor work in standard in the work of hor work in the wast of plant and the work of hor work in th Houtman. She took passage for against the advice of her doctor.

poleon," in three letters to Miss Smith. Crand National Steeplechase. of Lendon, and "The Chronicle of the

In the room were seated at the eight maked at tables. Louis Sherry had been with the season are 8:20—Sari New Amsterdam
Margaret Anglin Liberty
Too Many Cooks 39th Street
Kitty MacKay Comedy
Peg o My Heart Cort
Seven Keys to Ealdpate Gulety
To-day Street

8:30—The Things That Count Playhouse
Pre Crinoline Girl Knickerbocker
Lyceum

The Crinoline Girl Lyceum
Lyceum
Help Wanted Maxine Elliott's
The Duminy Hidson The Dumin)
The Misleading Lady...
A Pair of Sixes...
Legend of Leonora.... ...Longacre Empire

VAUDEVILLE HOUSES.

. 8:15 . . . . Colonial . 8:15 . . . Palace . 8:15 . . . Bronx BURLESQUE.

MRS. WATSON GIVES FAREWELL LUNCHEON

nfty-rive. He was born in Broand was graduated from New University and Long Island College pital. He was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa and the Psi Upsilon fraternities,

Kings County Medical Society, State Medical Society, Anthon Lodge, F. and A. M.; Long Island Council, R. A.; Montau's Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Primrose Lodge, Sons of St. George. He leaves a wife and three children.

WILFRID DE FONVIELLE. Paris, April 30 .- Wilfrid de Fonvielle, the oldest aeronaut in the world, is dead here, aged 90. As early as 1854 he began experimenting with balloons and made

In this age of aerial navigation the comparison with the names of many us to-date birdmen. Yet he was easily the dean of the whole company, and was en titled to distinction not only by his age.

Then he devoted his attention

Astronomy, geology, chemist

Borker Mary C. Mitchell Ann Maria Brown, George Fox Sanderson, Billda Goodday, William H Sinclair, Joseph Mathison, Julia E.

BROWN—At Rahway, N. J. April 20, 1914. Goorge Fox Brown, aged 14 years. Funeral services will be held at his interestidence, 17 Jaques ave. on Seturday afternoon, May 2, at chiefly to occasional essays.

some remarkable ascents.

Thirty Guests Entertained in Louis XVI Room at the St. Regis.

DINNER DANCE AT HOTEL VANDERBILT

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferris Simmons Celebrate Seventh Wedding Anniversary.

but equally by his great scientific attain-Mrs. Wesley Watson, who is sailing for ments and by his extraordinary feats in er home in London next week, gave a farewell luncheon yesterday at the St. tist was born in Paris on July 2t. Room, and the table was decorated with spring flowers. The guests, numbering Barbe. For some years he was a distil Un. Mrs. Frederick Rooseveit, Mrs. guished professor of mathematics, b Francis Dana Winslow, Mrs. Charles G. Francklyn, Mrs. Daniel P. Worden, Mrs. knowledge through the publication o John G. Neeser, Mrs. Hamilton Fish, Mrs. Charles Granville Peters, Mrs. Edward S. Knapp, Mrs. Louis Cruger Hasell, Mrs. the James M. Varnum, Mrs. W. Watson Casa victim to Louis Napoleon's enmity and well, Mrs. Henry Meyer Johnson, Mrs. T. was exiled to Algeria, whence Chesley Richardson, Mrs. Arthur W. Marturned to France at the proclamation o tin, Mrs. John J. Staples, Mrs. Herman Newcomb, Mrs. Norris W. Mundy, chiefly to aeronautics. Both alone and in company with Gas-ton Tissandler he made a number of un-Mrs. Robert C. Waison, Mrs. Harry K. Knapp and Miss Alice Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferris Simmons entertained a number of friends at the Complégne in two hours: in February. Plaza dinner dance last night, in celebration of their seventh wedding anniversary. utes, a record-breaking performance, and heir guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. observations and graduations Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Millet, barometer in a lofty ascent. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Stuart, Miss Hope- rected the ascent of Lambert's gigantic n Atterbury, Miss Dorothy Schieffelin, gerestat North Pole. Miss Henriette Porter, Miss Edith Jay. During the slege of Paris by the Ger-Miss Ethel Du Bols, Lawrence Atterbury. mans he rendered valuable services by Robert Grier Cooke, Carroll Goldsbor- making repeated escents for purposes of Janet Buchanan, of Erooklyn; Miss Ethel ough. Clarence Storm and A. Van Bok- military he sailed out over the German lines and dinner dance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Orvis, who had as their guests Mr. and a scientist and as a historian a Mrs. E. Francis Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. J. Helst. More than a score of standard Edgar Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Well-scientific treatises bear his name, includ-man Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berry ing a masterly history of the American Raymond Shipman, Marvin Coe, Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Wells.

Another series of dances organized by physiology, meteorology and, indeed, all Women of Greenwich Village Mrs. E. Roscoe Mathews was given last branches of science seemed equally at light at the Hotel Vanderbilt. The patronesses include Mrs. Arthur Iselin, Mrs. political and historical works, and at Among the telegrams of congratulas Belmont Tiffany, Mrs. James A. Burden, least one novel. His last work of pro-tion sent to Vincent Astor yesterday was jr., Mrs. William Astor Chanler, Mrs. J. portance was "Famous Ships." in 1986 eon of ten covers yesterday at the St Regis for her sister, Mrs. Albert C. Bost-to-night at the Union Club for the Austrian Ambassador and Prince Muenster Von Berneburg.

BARKER After a brief limes Mary Chamberin Barker daughter of Henry Chamberin Barker daughter of Henry Chamberin Barker Notice of R. and Mary E. Barker, Notice of funeral hereafter.

was her daughter. Miss Ruth V. Twombly, N. J., to-day, to remain until July 1, when they will go to Newport.

Mrs. Edwin H. Weatherbee, of 240 Madison ave., will go to her country home at cian's Mamaroneck to-day for the summer. MFTCHELL-On April 20, Ann Maris Mitchell, aged 91 years, daughter of the late Timothy and Sarah van Lieu Bloomfeld. Funeral services "The Puneral Church" 241 West 23d st. (Frank E. Campbell Rulding), on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Internent Perth Amboy, N. J.

OBITUARY.

BOOK SALE DRAWS THRONG

Rare Edition of Thackeray

Reings Good Price.

Lexington, Ky., April 39.—Tracy Brown, of Baltimore, son of Rear Admiral Samuel T. Brown, U. S. N., died here to-day be from presumenta, at the age of thirty-two daughter of Edward F. and Ethel daughter of Edward F. Booklovers gathered yesterday at the Anderson Galleries, where the opening years. He came here some time ago to session of the sale of the third section perfect himself for an engineering career. of the Major William H. Lambert library was held. George D. Smith gave the top price-$10-for a rare first edition of Thackeray's "Second Funeral of Nashology" in three letters to Miss Smith.

of London, and Industry of London, and Industry of London, and Industry of President Lincoin C. F. John E. Bullwinkle, lawyer and former drawing of President Lincoin C. F. Assemblyman from Kings County died yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn. He was born in Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the property of the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn. He was born in Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home, 523 Washington ave. Brooklyn in 1860, and was graduated from the line of the yesterday at his home. Brooklyn in 1860, and yesterday at his Erocklyn Technical Institute, West Point Military Academy and Columbia Law School. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. The Rev. Dr. W. A. Sny. two daughters. The Rev. Dr. W. A. Snyder will officiate at the funeral, to be held to-morrow evening. Burial will be in THORN, Ida F., 129 West 56th et., April 28, Greenwood Cemetery.

addition to serving as postmaster several addition to serving as postmaster several years, he was a member of the Borough Council. He leaves a widow and several to-morrow 2 p. m. children.

GEORGE F. BROWN.

Brown, eighty years old and a Quaker, field at his home, 17 Jacques ave., to-day.

Mr. Brown was born in this city and sey City. April 29. Funeral to-morrow Mr. Brown was born in this city and sey City, April 20 a.m. sey City, April 20 a.m. sey City, April 20 a.m. porter process at 136 porter. Frederick E. at Orange, April 20 a.m. porter. Frederick E. at Orange, April 20 a.m. porter. Fundamental to-morrow 2.30 aged 78. Funeral to-morrow 2.30 aged 78. Ellicott, a professor of mathematics at West Point, a great-uncle of the deceased, Kearny, April 30, aged 8 West Point, a stead washington, while an-laid out the City of Washington, while an-other great-uncle, Joseph Ellicott, planned the City of Buffale. Kearly, April 20, aged 71, Funeral to-morrow 2.20 p. m.

DR. EUGENE F. PEARCE.

SINCLAIR -At Vireland, N.J. Wednes-day, April 29, Joseph, youngest son of the late Join and Enmeline Sinciair Philadelphia papers please copy. MANHATTAN. GREEN, Franklin A., 252 West 199th st., April 19. Funeral to-day at 5 p. cm.

H NGE. Max J., 1866 Valentine Rve. Funeral to-morrow at 19 a. at.

EDWARD CAMERON LOGAN,

Edward Cameron Logan, forty-six years

BEHRENS, Rudolph, 28 Nimrod st.,
April 28, aged 47, Funeral to-day 2 p. m.

BARNEMAN, Edward, April 29. old, died yesterday at his home, in North DALSTON, William B., 612 Jefferson ave.

April 29, aged 86. Funeral to-day 8 p. m.

BROOKLYN.

NEW JERSEY. HOWARD, Sarah, 523 Mount Prospect ave. Newark, April 30, aged 75. Funeral to-morrow 8 p. m.

Rahway, N. J., April 30.—George P. KELLY, James P., 550 Jersey ave. Jersey Erown, eighty years old and a Quaker. Cit. April 29. aged 51. Funeral to-morrow 8 a. m.

Mr. Brown leaves a wife and one son. WILLIAMSON, 'oin K., at West Orange, April 20, aged 6.

CEMETERIES.

Dr. Eugene F. Pearce died yesterday at his home, 55 Henry st., Brooklyn, aged him by from 25 East 23d St., F. T.